Election of Y. M. C. A. Directors

Notice to Woodme

...age Tuesday ... on announced ... that place of ... gul, his wife ... d son. Just ... the tragedy oc- ... less never be ... ul and his wife ... hich sets just ... court square. ... y of them on ... nday failed to ... of the people ... but on Tues- ... nt to the hotel ... and for the doors closed. A party had also gone there at noon the previous day but also found the doors closed. On Tuesday morning the house was entered and the bodies of Mr. Wiygul, his wife and son were found, with every indication that they had been murdered. Mrs. Wiygul was found in her bed, being shot evidently without being awakened, the young man, Purde, aged seventeen, was found in his room adjoining, having been shot and afterwards beaten by the butt of the gun on the head until dead, Mr. Wiygul was on the floor of his room with his throat cut and a shot gun and knife lying by his side. Just when the awful tragedy occurred no one knows. The hotel is removed some distance from any other residence and the report of the gun failed to arouse any one.

At the home of the bride in Water Valley Saturday afternoon, December 28, Miss Alma Hill was married to Mr. Hulén E. Stone, of Tupelo, the ceremony being said by Rev. N. S. Stone, of Water Valley.

While the friends of the contracting parties have anticipated the marriage for some time, the announcement of it came as a surprise to many of their Tupelo friends.

The bride came to Tupelo two years ago, and during that time has won a warm place in the hearts of many of our people by her amiable manners, her high intellectual qualities and numerous accomplishments.

Mr. Stone has served as assistant postmaster here for the past eight years, and is recognized as one of Tupelo's most substantial and successful young business men. He is justly popular among a large circle of friends and is held in high esteem for his sterling worth.

With the many friends of the contracting parties the Journal extends the newly wedded couple its best wishes for a long and happy life.

On account of the expiration of the one year term of Messrs. S. P. Clayton, D. W. Andrews, J. R. Bryan, C. P. Long and Fletcher Johnson, there will be an election of their successors at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday, January 7. The polls will be open from 9 a. m. until 10 p. m. Any one wishing to present names to fill these vacancies must do so in writing and give them to M. E. Leake, chairman of the nominating committee, by 9 o'clock Monday night, January 6.

There can not be a majority of any one religious denomination on this board, and all names presented must be a member in good standing of some evangelical church. The active members are those having a right to vote, active meaning holding a membership in some evangelical church. W. T. Nettles, Sec.

We are requested to announce that Rev. J. L. Rea, of Texas, will preach at the court house tonight at 7 o'clock. Mr. Rea was reared in this county, and returns after 31 years to preach the gospel to his old friends. Everybody cordially invited.

Tuesday Even.,
Tupelo Camp No. 130, elected the following officers for 1913: G. T. Parker, C. C.; A. H. Hutchison, A. L.; A. H. Taylor, Banker; G. M. Crane, Clerk; P. H. Mitchell, Escort; W. A. Tucker, Watchman; H. L. Ramp-ley, Sentry, and W. H. Berry, Manager. Tuesday night, January 7, these officers will be installed.

There was a committee appointed to draft by-laws for the Camp. The by-laws are ready and will be read Tuesday night, for adoption or rejection, and we hope to have a large crowd out to pass upon them, as they will affect every member alike.

There will be other business to come before the Camp, so come out and be with us January 7.
G. M. Crane, Clerk.

Mutual Culture Club.

Friday afternoon, December 20, the Mutual Culture Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. R. L. Pound at her handsome home on Main street.

The rooms thrown open for the entertainment of the guests were beautifully decorated with holly and poinsettias. Mrs. Pound was assisted in receiving by her son, Master Frank Pound, and Miss Mary Haughton Mc-Gaughy.

At the appointed hour the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. W. Hall. Responses at roll call were quotations on Christmas.

Mrs. McDonald was the capable leader for the afternoon, and in her usual charming manner directed the following program:

Christmas Poem—Miss Lela Dickson.

The Church in South America—Mrs. C. W. Hall.

Relation of the Races in South America—Mrs. F. L. Spight.

Piano Solo—Miss Mary H. Mc-Gaughy.

An interesting discussion by the Club of Peru and its capital, Lima, concluded the program.

During the social hour a delicious salad course, with coffee and cheese rings, was served. A number of invited guests enjoyed Mrs. Pound's hospitality.

Mrs. F. L. Spight,
Sec. Pro. Tem.

K. of P. Notice.

District Deputy C. A. Taylor has just returned from Jackson, Miss., where he attended a school of instructions of the district deputies of the state. Mr. Taylor has the authority from the Grand Chancellor to install the newly elected officers of Tupelo Lodge No. 133, for the ensuing six months, and the following officers will be installed next Monday night, January 6:

Geo. H. Hill, C. C.; L. A. Bogan, V. C.; W. F. Jackson, P.; W. K. Wilson, M. A.; C. A. Taylor, M. W.; Philip Nanney, M. E.; G. M. Crane, K. of R. & S.; W. M. Watson, I. G.; J. A. Rains, O. G.

Mr. Taylor is also in possession of the new rituals, and as there has been a number of changes made it will be worth while for all the members to come out and acquaint themselves with these new ritual.

"Madame Sherry."

Because everyone all over the country is humming, singing or whistling some numbers of the score of the big sensational musical success, "Madame Sherry," the impression is current in some quarters that the production's charm is in greater part musical. Report says that the mirth qualities of the play are no less engaging than the score. The love of a man for a maid under odd circumstances, love of the soulful, romantic sort, love that blossoms in the heart of youth and flourishes as true love ever does, when things do not go smoothly, is the reigning spell of the production, according to report, but this love, this courtship is so beset on so many sides, and attended by so many misadventures, that while itself remaining an appealing interest, all its accessory situations arouse amusement. Some idea of the fun developed may perhaps be gleaned by a summary of the character of the play which, besides the lovers, include an Italian house janitor, his Irish wife, a lively fun-loving actress, a New York man about-town, an excitable Venezuelan, an amusingly whimsical uncle of the maid in love, and others, including the pupils of a dancing school and the guests of a yachting party. At Comus Theatre Wednesday, January 8.—Adv.
